Information on the rights of data subjects

The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him or her are being processed, and, where that is the case, access to these personal data and to the information specified in Art. 15 GDPR.

The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning him or her and, if applicable, to have incomplete personal data completed (Art. 16 GDPR).

The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller the erasure of personal data concerning him or her without undue delay provided that one of the reasons specified in Art. 17 GDPR applies, e. g., if the data are no longer necessary for the purposes pursued (right to erasure).

The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller restriction of processing where one of the conditions specified in Art. 18 GDPR is fulfilled, e. g., if the data subject has objected to processing as long as the examination by the controller takes place.

The data subject has the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her. The controller will no longer process the personal data unless the controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims (Art. 21 GDPR).

Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, every data subject has the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, if the data subject considers that the processing of personal data relating to him or her infringes the GDPR (Art. 77 GDPR). The data subject can exercise this right with the supervisory authority in the Member State of his or her habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement. The competent supervisory authority in Hesse is Der Hessische Beauftragte für Datenschutz und Informationsfreiheit, Postfach 3163, 65021 Wiesbaden.
